

Klementina (Tina) X. Sula is the Sr. Director of Family Philanthropy at the Jewish Federation of Detroit. She advises multigenerational families on how to give on purpose, helping them align their philanthropy with their purpose and values while engaging the next generation with the family philanthropy. She also teaches networking at the University of Michigan. She also has experience in alumni engagement, global philanthropy, and healthcare philanthropy. She holds a B.A. in Political Science, a Master of Public Policy degree, and a M.A. in Higher Education – all from the University of Michigan.